Work in the Heart of Downtown LA

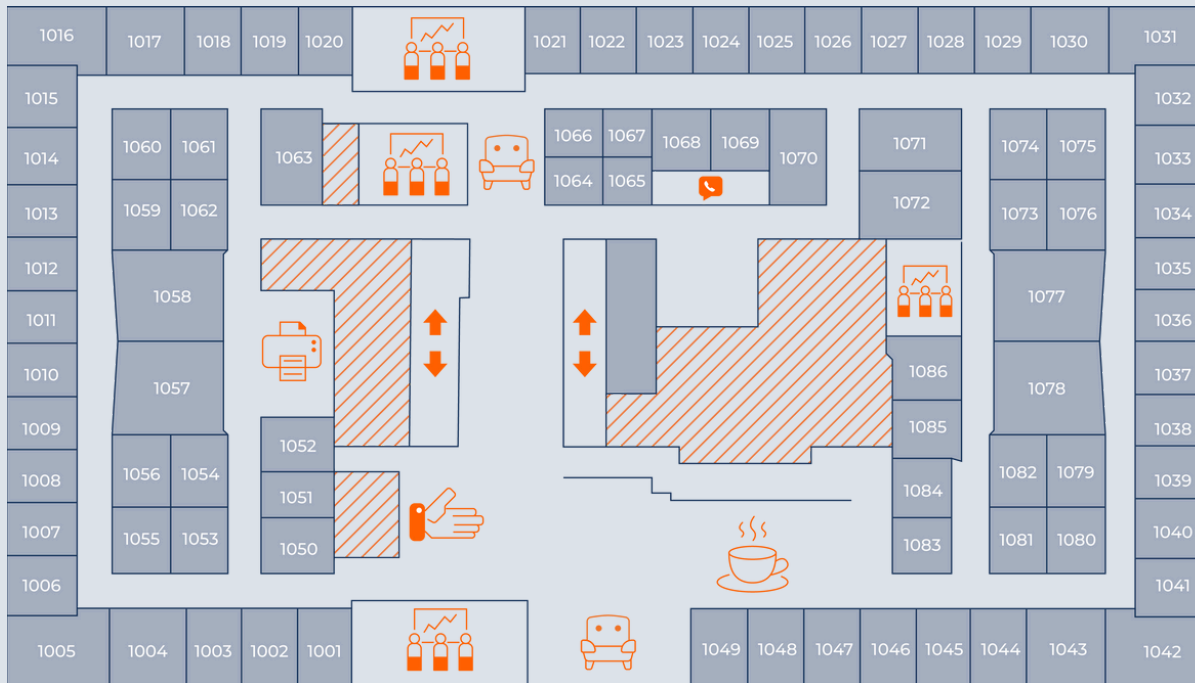

Carr Workplaces DTLA takes over the entire 10th floor of The Bloc, a dynamic mixed-use destination that redefines urban working. Situated along the vibrant 7th Street corridor, this location bridges LA's financial, fashion, jewelry, and theater districts, making it a hotspot for innovation and collaboration. With direct access to the 7th Street Metro Center Station—where five major transit lines converge—your commute couldn't be easier. This thriving open-air hub is more than a workspace; it's a community that energizes your day, connects you to downtown's best, and offers a front-row seat to the ever-evolving pulse of Los Angeles.

CLIENT REVIEW

"We recently moved our startup office to Carr Workplaces DTLA after touring 10 different coworking spaces in and around downtown Los Angeles. Highlights here include the location, which is right on top of the metro and in a lively neighborhood with tons of services. The staff is friendly, responsive, and accommodating, and the atmosphere is professional without being stuffy. I highly recommend!"
