Work Where DC's Power Players Meet

Carr Workplaces K Street places you in the heart of Washington, DC, just steps from the White House and Dupont Circle. This prestigious address offers a bright, professional community—perfect for everything from high-stakes meetings to creative collaborations—supporting both full-time and hybrid work models. It's an ideal spot for teams seeking an energizing, inviting space that fosters culture and connection. With easy access to Metro, Capital Bikeshare, and garage parking, commuting is a breeze. K Street's iconic reputation attracts top-tier clients, law firms, advocacy groups, and nonprofits, providing a polished setting for professionals who value privacy and prestige. Whatever your business needs, this location offers the space and atmosphere to elevate your work.

CLIENT REVIEW

My law firm has been renting office space and utilizing the accompanying administrative services from Carr Workplaces K Street location for over five years. The location is ideal, and the building and suite accommodations are first rate. Our offices have impressive views and definitely makes a strong first impression with new clients. The staff is always professional, responsive, and always willing to attend to the needs of our attorneys and staff. We could not ask for a better location and support team for our practice.
